RadsForVets Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy describes the types of cookies RadsForVets uses in connection with our Services, and how you can manage them. We refer to all services we provide to our clients as "Services."

Types of Cookies

Cookies are small text files that may be placed on your device when you interact with online services. Cookies can help services remember information about your visit, such as your language settings or when you logged in, which can improve your experience when you revisit a website. They can also be used for other purposes, such as helping online services troubleshoot errors and better understand how their services are being used. Cookies set by us are called first-party cookies. We also use third-party cookies – which are cookies from a domain different from the domain of the website you are visiting. Similar technologies, such as pixels, web beacons, or local storage, can also be used for these purposes. We use "cookies" to refer to cookies and similar technologies.

- ### Necessary Cookies

  These cookies are required to operate our Services. For example, they allow us to authenticate users or enable specific features within the Services, including for security purposes.

- ### Analytics Cookies

  These cookies help us analyze and understand how our Services perform and are used, such as the number of users, how they interact with our Services, and time spent using the Services.

- ### Functionality Cookies

  These cookies allow our website to remember choices you have made in the past, like what language you prefer, what region you would like weather reports for, or what your username and password are so you can automatically log in.

Managing Cookies

Depending on applicable law, you may be able to choose which cookies are used when using our Services. If you are in a jurisdiction that allows for that control, you can access your cookie settings by clicking here(opens in a new window). If you refuse "Analytics" cookies, the availability or functionality of the Services could be affected. Cookies listed as "Necessary" are required for the Services to function and cannot be disabled.

Your web browser may allow you to manage your cookie preferences, including to delete and disable cookies. You can take a look at the help section of your web browser or follow the links below to understand your options. If you choose to disable cookies, some features of our Site or Services may not operate as intended.
